Newsflush

DAVID

A new schoolyear goes with a new newsflush, new parties, a lot of new bunker events and, last but not least, new Crew-members! I will introduce myself shortly so you can recognize that "idiot" behind the bar. My name is David van den Broek and I am 22 years old. I study Applied Sciences (biology and stuff) at Fontys Hogeschool Eindhoven. Currently I am following an internship at Wageningen University. In my spare time I like to go boxing, hang out with friends, drink some beers and than drink some more! After my bar-experience all over the world I was ready for a new challenge. To be a Bunker Board- and Crew-Member was the perfect opportunity to combine liquor, lots of fun and have a great new experience.

I hope to see you soon. Cheers,
David.
