

DE BUNKER

Newsflush

Message from the board

It's the start of a new academic year and the start of a new bunker year! With a splash of paint and a shiny pool table, the bunker is all fresh again. We are ready for your entrance, so blow us away with all your requests and demands and steam up the room with your dirty dance moves! See you downstairs!

Party Planning

We will start this year with our back to school party, drink yourself to confidence for a new year of student-labour with our extra cheap mix drinks. Don't say goodbye to your summer vibe yet and extend your holiday one more week during our bunkernight. The sex on the beach cocktail is back due to it's big success last time! As the Oktoberfest starts, Ze Germans will go all crazy in week 3. Of course we want to follow their good example, so get dressed in your best Tirol outfit and show us how many Jägerbombs you can handle. In week 4 it's time for our annual Trafficlight party, with every colour light there will be a different special. And ofcourse to honour and celebrate the lives of our pets, on the 4th of October(animal day) we sell everything with an animal logo for just 1 coin!

Hi, my name is Yindi.
 You may have seen me around in the Bunker, or not if you're new ;)
 I've been with the Bunker for quite some time now. Behind the bar or in front of it. When I'm not at the Bunker, I am working at an archery store. Selling bows and crossbows. And in my free time I like to shoot a few arrows myself. So for any archery or alcohol related questions, come and find me!
